Dear Parents/Carers

Stage 1 Excursion Park Safari

In support of our Science Unit 'Watch it Grow', Stage 1 will have the opportunity to participate in an adventure safari at Bicentennial Park Homebush. They will experience three different environments in Sydney Olympic Park including a mangrove forest, a fresh water pond and a dry forest.

This excursion will support what the students have been doing in the classroom through an adventure style excursion where they will learn about animals in their natural environment and how to care for them.

Where: Bicentennial Park Education Centre, Sydney Olympic Park Homebush.
When: Wednesday 25 September 2019
Depart: Alfords Point Public School 9:00am
Return: Alfords Point Public School 3:00pm
Transport: Seat belted bus
Cost: $30.00
What to Bring: Recess, lunch, plenty of drinking water, hat and sunscreen in a small bag

Students will need to wear their full winter school uniform

Please complete the permission slip below and forward it to the office with $30.00 by Friday 6 September 2019.

Kind Regards

Amy McDonald, Maria Panourgias,
Soula Karatzis, and Jenny Waghorn
